

2015 Christmas In Atlanta: Your Definitive Guide To Holiday Happenings Around The City

Holiday Events with Young Chef's Academy

This holiday season, warm and comforting aromas of cinnamon, gingerbread and peppermint will fill the air at Young Chefs Academy (three locations nearby in North Druid Hills, Marietta and Sandy Springs) as children and their parents visit for festive camps and workshops. Throughout December, Young Chefs Academy will host a selection of exciting holiday events, such as gingerbread house workshops, winter "Fireside Meal" camps, Christmas cookie workshops, holiday brunch workshops and more. Additionally, as the curriculum at Young Chefs Academy is updated regularly with fresh monthly themes, December's theme of "It's Breakfast Time Somewhere" will also allow children to experience cultural holiday dishes. Each week will feature courses for preparing traditional breakfast foods from different regions of the world, and will highlight holiday dishes throughout. For more details, visit <http://youngchefsacademy.com/georgia>.