CINNAHOLIC IS SCARBOROUGH'S ONLY VEGAN DESERT SHOP

Cinnaholic, which opened Oct. 19 at 6015 Steeles Ave. E., Unit 4, is likely the first vegan desert place in Scarborough.

Customers can customize the signature cinnamon rolls with 20 different flavours and 30 toppings.

The store cooks everything from scratch in-house, and also sells brownies, cookies, cinnacakes and cookie dough (which, being vegan, can be eaten raw).

The choices can be overwhelming, but people can sample frostings before deciding, advises Mohammad Aqib Paracha, brother of owner Mohammad Ahmed Paracha.

Six members of the family are involved in the business in the Markham Steeles Crossing plaza, just west of Markham Cinnaholic is a new business at 6015 Steeles Ave. E. in Scarborough.

Road.

Many South Asian people in the area are vegetarian or vegan, says Paracha, adding Cinnaholic caters too, offering party platters.

Beverages are also vegan.
