

A Running List of Phoenix Restaurants Reopening the Week of May 11

By Lauren Cusimano, May 11, 2020

It's official — restaurants may resume in-house seatings starting today, May 11. This comes a week after Governor Doug Ducey announced that Arizona eateries and coffee shops may do so if owners and staff follow the guidelines listed on this one-page health sheet and from the CDC.

Restaurants don't have to open today, but some are now that dine-in services are allowed back. Here's a running list of Valleywide restaurants that will be seating guests this week — with all the proper modifications, of course.

Daily Jam

310 South Mill Avenue, #A101, Tempe

Daily Jam is reopening its downtown Tempe location's dining area as of May 11. Expect a reduced number of seats in the dining room and on the patio and use of to-go containers and silverware for dine-in orders. Hours are 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

Link to article: <https://bit.ly/2YW36ep>.