

Franchise Interviews Meets The Office Pride Commercial Cleaning Services

We have a great show today. We are meeting with Todd Hopkins, Founder/CEO/President of The Office Pride Commercial Cleaning Services franchise. Office Pride is a fast-growing franchise in the $78 billion commercial cleaning industry. Their franchisees provide top-quality janitorial services and total floor care delivered in a professional and consistent way, through a commitment to honesty and integrity. As an Office Pride franchisee, you can enjoy all of the benefits of owning and growing your own business, plus the added benefits that comes with being part of a 25 year old franchise with a carefully-designed and proven business success model and support structure. As a part of our network, you will immediately have impeccable references, world class training and support plus financial and operational tools.

The culture at Office Pride is our true distinguishing quality – our Core Beliefs and Values set the tone for every business interaction we have and we're known nationwide for providing total customer satisfaction based on those Core Beliefs and Values.

Speaking of Beliefs and Values, would a franchise opportunity built and run on Biblical principles interest you? Office Pride is a faith-based franchise system. Our franchise owners don't have to separate their faith from their professional lives, because Office Pride encourages you to live your faith thru your business.

Listen to full podcast show: <http://bit.ly/2tNx80L>

